Confession vs. Hypocrisy

After hearing a sermon on confession, a man approached his preacher with a heavy conscience. He explained that he worked for a boat builder and stole expensive brass nails. The man could not tell the boat builder, he said, "Because he would lose his job and his boss would think him a hypocrite and all of the times I shared my faith with him will go to waste." Finally, guilt got so bad he had to confess. He offered restitution. His boss responded: "I did think you were just a hypocrite, but now I begin to feel there's something in this Christianity after all. Any religion that would make a dishonest workman come back and confess that he had been stealing copper nails and offer to settle for them must be worth having."

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find, knock, and it will be opened to you."

Matthew 7:7
