Special Times

There are times when we let favors go unmentioned.
When we leave a warm and loving word unsaid,
There are times when we forget our kind intentions,
When we're wrapped up in our private world instead—

But though we often fail to show our feelings,
We hope the ones we love will somehow know—
And that's why there are days meant for revealing
The love we feel but may not always show.

Our College Students

Last fall we came together to do our Snack Attack Packs. This fall since so many of our college kids are attending schools farther away we want to do things differently. We have come up with gathering Encouragement cards and Gift Cards. This way we can encourage them and they can still get snacks.....they will just have to purchase their own items. Please ask Cassie if you have any questions. There will be a basket to collect the cards in the foyer.
