Hogs and Hypocrites

A preacher once visited a hog farmer to talk about Christ. "I wouldn't come to church up there," said the farmer, "I know old so and so and they don't live any differently than me. I am as good as they are." Everywhere the farmer went he talked about the hypocrites in the church.

Months passed by and the preacher went to see the farmer again. "I want to buy a hog," said the preacher. The farmer showed him all his best hogs. In the corner of the pen was the runt of the litter. The preacher spied the runt, "That's the one I want to buy," he said. "You don't want the runt," protested the farmer. "Yes, I do. I want that little, sickly pig," replied the preacher.

They loaded the runt into the preacher's truck and as he left, he said. "Now I'm going to ride all over this county and tell folks this is the kind of hogs you raise."

"That's not fair," the farmer exclaimed, "I have some really nice hogs and you want to show people that runt!"

"If it's fair for the church, then it's fair for hogs", the preacher replied.

We shouldn't talk to harshly about the church. Who knows, it might have changed for the better since you last attended.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find, knock, and it will be opened to you."

Matthew 7:7

Hey There Delilah

I don't know what Samson saw in Delilah, but whatever it was it was enough to destroy him. I don't think we can hold women like this as a positive example expect maybe in one aspect: persistence.

This woman was able to do what no man ever could: She brought down Samson. She did it by never stopping. Time after time Samson refuses her, but she just keeps on prodding until finally against all good sense he tells her how he can be subdued.

"It came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death" (Judges 16:16).

Persistence can conquer the unconquerable. That's why it is a trait Jesus encourages us to have (Luke 11:5-10, 18:1). Those that give up quickly are always disappointed. Those that persist despite disappointment will eventually get what they want.

Let's be persistent in what is good rather than evil.

Sermon Outline for Sunday Morning

Some shall not inherit the kingdom of God

1 Corinthians 6:9-11

The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom.

A. Man needs to become concerned about God's kingdom.

1. life here is like a vapor (James 4:13-16) B. Those who do not inherit the kingdom will be last (Matt.

C. The kingdom is something we inherit.

1 .We cannot buy the kingdom.

We cannot...

By becoming Gods child. (2 Peter 1 :5-11)

Know who the unrighteous are.

There is a danger of deception (vs. 10)

Satan would like to (Eph. 4:17-19)

Like a roaring lion (1 Peter 5:8)

Paul lists specific sins of which unrighteousness consists.

Know how the unrighteous may become righteous (1 Cor.6:11)

A. The Corinthians had been washed (Acts 18:8)

When one is "washed", his sins are taken away.

(Heb. 10:22)

When One is "washed" and evil Conscience is removed ( Heb. 10:22)

B. The Corinthians, in being washed, were "Sanctified" 1. They had been set apart from the old sinful life and consecrated to God.

2. God had, through the Gospel, called them to be saints (2 Thess.

These people were "justified"

When they were washed they were also sanctified and justified.
