Faithful to the Lord

The saddest thing in the world will be the person standing before the Lord on the Day of Judgment who had once been a faithful child of God, but died unfaithful to the Lord and living in sin. God's word says concerning this individual, "But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: A dog returns to his own vomit" (2 Peter 2:22), and also "it would have been good if he had never been born" (Mark 14:21). There is no longer forgiveness of sins for a person who is unfaithful and living in sin (Hebrews 10:26). A person in this condition "who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace, it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (Hebrews 10:29, 31), and being "cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. (Revelation 20:10).

The greatest thing at the end of our time will be if we can say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing" (2 Timothy 4:7-8). Going to Heaven must be our number one priority in this life. Satan is striving to cause us to give up, but let us not, "Cast away your confidence, which has great reward" (Hebrews 10:35) We are to, "Let no one cheat you of your reward" (Colossians 2:18). To keep us from losing our reward we must be, *Steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58) Gary Fox

Hey There Delilah

I don't know what Samson saw in Delilah, but whatever it was it was enough to destroy him. I don't think we can hold women like this as a positive example expect maybe in one aspect: persistence.

This woman was able to do what no man ever could: She brought down Samson. She did it by never stopping. Time after time Samson refuses her, but she just keeps on prodding until finally against all good sense he tells her how he can be subdued.

“It came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death” (Judges 16:16).

Persistence can conquer the unconquerable. That's why it is a trait Jesus encourages us to have (Luke 11:5-10, 18:1). Those that give up quickly are always disappointed. Those that persist despite disappointment will eventually get what they want.

Let's be persistent in what is good rather than evil.

Quotes and Sayings

“Christians are like the several flowers in a garden that have each of them the dew of heaven, which, being shaken with the wind, they let fall at each other's roots, whereby they are jointly nourished, and become nourishers of each other.” — John Bunyan
