God Still Wants Me!

When it is first printed a $100 bill is crisp and clean and you can take that bill and buy $100 dollars worth of merchandise. That bill will then pass through many different hands in the next 15 years, the expected life of that bill. The bill will become crumpled, worn, wrinkled, possibly torn, and will most likely have traces of feces, cocaine, animal DNA, food, and more than 100 different strains of bacteria by the end of its useful existence. Even near the end, the last person that is given that bill will gladly take it and can use that damaged worn-out, disgusting, $100 bill and purchase $100 dollars worth of merchandise. Even though it is in bad shape that bill still has value and is useful to us.

As a human, I came into this world crisp and new. As my life progresses I will pick up a few wrinkles, a few tears. I make mistakes and bad choices, I sin. Yet to God, I still have the same value I had when I was born. No matter the life I have chosen, no matter the sins I have committed, God still wants me! God wants all of us to come back to Him so He can make us new again. God calls all humankind to repentance and reconciliation.

“The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance”

(2 Peter 3:9 NIV)

How long have you been a Christian?

Pam Murray

48 years

What's one of your favorite verses in the Bible?

Zechariah 2:5

What's one piece of advice you have for young Christians?

"Verify everything that's said to you using the Bible to make sure that it's true."

Angels Rejoice!

In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

(Luke 15:10 NIV)

Cavin and Brian Schaplowsky were baptized
June 24th at Flint Hills Christian Camp!

So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.
