She Directed Her Child's Steps

There once was a church pouring new cement for the walkway to the meeting house. One of the young mothers of the congregation took her 2-year-old baby and imprinted his hand in the wet cement pointing to the door of the building. She wanted a constant reminder to herself and everyone else that she was going to do everything she could to direct her child's steps to the Lord.

In the Bible (2 Tim. 1:5) we are told of another child whose faith was directed by his grandmother and mother; Timothy. The young evangelist may have never had faith without a godly grandmother and mother wanting to direct him in the ways of the Lord.

This is how faith is often started. A godly parent or grandparent teaching, and showing their child the way to the Lord.

Will you start a heritage of faith with your family this Sunday?

Still Together

Let me hold your hand, as we go downhill,
We've shared our strength, and we share it still,
It hasn't been easy to make the climb,
But the way was eased by your hand in mine.

Like the lake, our life, has had ripples too,
Ill health and worries, and payments due,
With happy pauses along the way,
A graduation, a raise in pay.

At the foot of the slope, we will stop and rest,
Look back if you wish, we've been truly blessed,
We've been spared the grief of being torn apart,

By death or divorce, or a broken heart.

The view ahead, is one of the best,
Just a little further, and then we can rest,
We move more slowly, but together still,
Let me hold your hand, as we go downhill.
